Delaware 87ers

On April 27, 2013, the NBA Development League announced that the Philadelphia 76ers purchased the rights to own and operate the former Utah Flash, which were on hiatus since the end of the 2010-11 NBA D-League season. The team was renamed the Delaware 87ers and became the single-affiliate for the 76ers. The 87ers play their home games at the Bob Carpenter Center on the campus of the University of Delaware.

The team name, 87ers, was selected in recognition of Delaware's place in United States history, as it was the first state to ratify the U.S. Constitution on December 7, 1787. The 87ers are nicknamed the "Sevens" as a nod to the way the parent club is often referred to as the Sixers.

BRYAN COLANGELO

President of Basketball Operations

On April 10, 2016, the Philadelphia 76ers named Bryan Colangelo president of basketball operations. Prior to joining the Sixers, Colangelo served as president of basketball operations and general manager with the Toronto Raptors from 2006-13.

He spent 15 years in the Phoenix Suns organization, where he served 11 seasons as the club's general manager including the last seven as team president.

Colangelo's arrival in Toronto was marked by a series of trades and free agent acquisitions that resulted in nine new players on the roster at the start of 2006-07 training camp. In his first full season at the helm of the Raptors, the team improved an NBA-best 20 wins over the 2005-06 season to tie a franchise high with 47 victories. Toronto went on to win the 2006-07 Atlantic Division championship, securing third seed and home court in its return to the playoffs after missing the postseason the previous five seasons.

For his efforts in leading the Raptors' dramatic change of fortune, Colangelo was named 2006-07 Sporting News NBA Executive of the Year. It was his second such honour, having received the award in 2005 after guiding the Suns to the third-greatest turnaround in NBA history en route to winning the Pacific Division Championship. He is one of only three executives to win the award with two different franchises (Bob Bass, Jerry West).

During Colangelo's career as a general manager, his teams have appeared in the NBA Playoffs 11 times and have captured four division championships.

Prior to his move to Toronto, the former Suns executive was part of a new ownership group that purchased the franchise June 30, 2004. He also previously held the positions of scout, assistant director of player personnel, and vice president/assistant general manager with the Suns, where he was directly involved in all aspects of player personnel, including evaluation, draft selection and transactions. He also served as tournament director of the NIKE Desert Classic, an annual college All-Star basketball tournament held in Phoenix, from 1993 through 2001.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Suns, Colangelo served as president of Phoenix Arena Sports (PAS), the owning entity of the Arizona Rattlers (Arena Football League) and the operating entity of the Phoenix Mercury (WNBA) from June 1991 through June 2002. Highlights of his involvement with PAS include the 1994 and 1997 Rattler World Championships, setting the league attendance mark with the Phoenix Mercury in the WNBA's inaugural season, and his selection as the AFL's 1993 Executive of the Year. The Rattlers also won the AFL Commissioner's Award as the top franchise on and off the field for an unprecedented five straight years from 1996 to 2000.

Colangelo's accomplishments and influence in sports and business were recognized nationally when he was named to the "40 Under 40" most influential group by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal in 2000.

In May 2005, Colangelo was named to the USA Basketball Men's Senior National Program Advisory Panel charged with selecting teams for the 2006 FIBA World Championship (Saitama, Japan), 2007 FIBA Americas Olympic Qualifying Tournament (Las Vegas, USA) and the 2008 Olympics (Beijing, China). Colangelo currently serves on the NBA's Competition Steering Committee and he was also named to Canada Basketball's Board of Directors in June of 2008.

Colangelo has been active with and supportive of many different charitable organizations and community partners including the Boy's and Girl's Club of Metropolitan Phoenix, the Phoenix Zoo, MLSE's Team Up Foundation, (formerly Raptors Foundation for Kids), the Art Gallery of Ontario, Save a Child's Heart Foundation, the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame, among others.

BRETT BROWN

Head Coach

Brett Brown was named head coach of the Sixers on August 14, 2013 after spending the previous 11 seasons as an assistant coach for the San Antonio Spurs under Gregg Popovich. Brown was a member of the Spurs organization for their first four championship seasons (1999, 2003, 2005 and 2007). Brown enters his fourth season as head coach of the Sixers.

From the start, Brown placed emphasis on player development and a commitment to an elite level of conditioning as the pillars of his program in Philadelphia. Both focal points helped Brown's Sixers demonstrate tremendous improvement on the defensive end during his first three seasons.

In 2015-16, the Sixers ranked third in the NBA in blocks per game (6.0) and total blocks (495). Philadelphia was one of five NBA teams to feature two players with at least 100 blocked shots on the season as Jerami Grant led the team with 127 and Nerlens Noel added 100 of his own. The Sixers were also one of 11 teams to average at least eight steals per game in 2015-16. The Sixers have also set the franchise record for three-pointers made in each of Brown's three seasons after having the second-fewest 3FGM of any non-expansion team from 1997-98 through 2012-13.

The Sixers allowed nearly nine fewer points per game in 2014-15 than they did during Brown's first season (2013-14), which was the second-largest decrease from one season to the next in franchise history. Brown's Sixers ranked tied for first in the league in steals and second in turnovers forced in 2014-15 after ranking first in both categories in 2013-14.

The Sixers fielded the youngest team in the league in each of Brown's first two seasons as head coach. In 2014-15, the Sixers had 14 undrafted players on their roster at some point, smashing the previous league single season record of 10. A total of 24 players saw action in at least one game for the Sixers in 2014-15, up from 23 during Brown' first season in 2013-14.

Brown originally joined the Spurs as a member of their basketball operations department in 1998-99 but left after the season to become the head coach of the Sydney Kings of the Australian National Basketball League (NBL). He re-joined the Spurs in July of 2002 as the team's assistant coach/director of player development and was moved to the bench as an assistant coach prior to the 2006-07 season.

A native of Maine, Brown played at South Portland High School for his father Bob Brown, who is a New England Basketball Hall of Famer. The younger Brown went on to attend Boston University where he played under Rick Pitino. Brown was named team MVP his sophomore year and served as team captain his final two seasons, helping the Terriers reach the NCAA Tournament as a senior in 1983. For his career, Brown posted an assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.19 and left ranked fourth in school history in assists (404). In 2013, Brown joined his father as an inductee into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame.

In addition to his time with the Spurs, Brown has a wealth of coaching experience in Australia, where he met and married his wife, Anna. He started as an assistant coach with the Melbourne Tigers under Lindsay Gaze, a member of both the Australian and FIBA Hall of Fame. Brown was named head coach of the North Melbourne Giants in 1993 and earned NBL Coach of the Year honors in 1994 after leading the Giants to the National Championship. Including his return to the NBL for three seasons with the Sydney Kings in 1999, Brown amassed 149 career coaching victories, sixth-most in league history. In March of 2009, Brown was named head coach of the Australian National Team. He had previously served as an assistant for eight years, including both the 1996 and 2000 Olympic Games as well as the 1998 World Championships. Brown led Australia to the FIBA Oceania Championship over rival New Zealand in 2011 to secure a bid to the 2012 Olympics. At the London games in 2012, Brown guided Australia to what many consider one of its best Olympic runs, culminating with a win over eventual bronze medalist Russia before being eliminated by Team USA in the quarterfinals. Overall, Australia compiled a 3-3 mark without the services of injured star Andrew Bogut.

Brown and his wife Anna have been married for over 20 years and have two daughters, Julia and Laura, and a son, Sam.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Community Engagement Programing

The Sixers believe that by fostering a bold and gutsy positive attitude, and nurturing devotion and commitment to a productive goal, young people can achieve their own personal greatness. Whatever endeavor they choose to pursue can be honed, crafted and developed. We are committed to fostering positive change in the lives of young people living in Philadelphia and Camden both in the classroom and on the court.

The motto we encourage for all those involved in our programs is: "I won't let others predict my future — I will invent my future, I will create my success."

Our Vision

We envision communities where all children have the opportunity to create, pursue and realize their dreams.

We are committed to reaching out into the lives of young people in our communities through in-depth engagements and community-based clinics to help them develop physical and emotional strength, a sense of personal well-being and an attitude of teamwork and service to others.

Utilizing the transformative power of basketball, we provide promising futures to our youth communities through education and mentorship. We can create the next generation of leaders and entrepreneurs that will ensure a bright future for our communities and all who live there.

Our Mission

In crafting our mission, we focus on what we can do that will have the greatest impact in achieving our vision. The result is both an action statement and a promise:

Through the transformative power of basketball and mentor-coaching, our young people can develop into the next generation of innovators and leaders.

Our Programs and Activities

Sixers Youth Foundation

The Sixers Youth Foundation is devoted to bringing positive change to the lives of young people in Philadelphia and Camden. The Foundation has developed and is investing in four signature programs in the coming years for middle school-aged youth: S.C.O.R.E., Sixers Youth H.O.O.P.S., Sixers Math Hoops and Court Renovations.

Through these programs, the Sixers Youth Foundation is helping young people who live in challenged communities and in vulnerable families develop healthy physical, social, emotional and academic skills. We are collaborating with educators and local schools to implement in-depth engagements with students in an effort to transform their lives and their futures in the classroom and on the court. We are helping young people develop in all facets of their character while fostering a life-long love of the game of basketball.

SIXERS YOUTH FOUNDATION

Community Relations

We connect to our fans and our communities in a multitude of ways, including hosting community activities, conferring in-arena recognitions and awards as well as donating memorabilia packages and tickets to qualifying non-profit organizations. In delivering our programs to the community, we involve Sixers' employees from across the organization, asking each to commit at least 76 hours of volunteer service throughout the year. A number of these volunteers participate in a rigorous coach-training program so that they can effectively engage and mentor young people who participate in our programs.

Our signature community activity is a 90-minute clinic that combines the power of basketball with individualized coaching and mentoring to help middle school-aged young people cultivate positive values and develop life-skills. The interactive clinic uses skill-building activities to inspire and engage students. In addition to the clinics, which are held throughout the year, the Sixers also partner with the NBA to conduct a series of outreach and in-arena events that supplement our outreach activities and sustain a sense of momentum.

PHILADELPHIA 76ERS UNIFORM HISTORY

2009-2014

1997-2009

1994-97

1991-94

1978-91

2015-Present: On June 18, 2015, the Sixers revealed new home (white), road (blue) and alternate (red) uniforms which were designed using elements from different eras in franchise history. "PHILA" is emblazoned across the chest of the home and road jerseys as a homage to the 1966-67 Championship team. The alternate red jersey has "SIXERS" sprawled across the front, to honor the 1982-83 Championship team. All three uniforms are decorated with a column of stars down each side in the fashion of the 1976-77 uniforms. Each jersey also has the phrase "PHILA TOUGH" sewn into the waist-level hem, visible only to the players prior to being tucked in.

2009-2015: Prior to the 2009-10 season ,the Sixers re-designed their uniform to feature the team's new primary "76ers basketball" logo with the red, white and blue color scheme. Trimmed in blue and red, the team will wear white uniforms with blue lettering and red numbers at home. On the road, the team will wear red uniforms, trimmed with blue and white, that feature white lettering and numbers. In the summer of 2010, the uniforms underwent some minor revisions, including blue piping added around the neck and shoulders among other aesthetic details. The Sixers also debuted an alternate blue uniform in the 2012-13 season opener.

2007 - 2009: Both the Sixers home and road jerseys underwent a bit of a facelift in the summer of 2007. Influenced by the secondary red road uniform, which was introduced the previous season, the home and road designs featured a refined red taping stretching from the jersey to the shorts. The material itself was also completely overhauled, as the new fabric was adidas clima-cool flatback mesh on the front with open-holed metallic stretchair fabrication on the back and in key venting zones through the front of the shoulders.

2007 - 2009: During the 2006-07 season, the 76ers unveiled a new second road uniform with red as the predominant color accented by the team's other official colors of white, blue, black, silver and gold. Produced by adidas, the jerseys featured a new "PHILA" wordmark across the front in a design similar to the team's primary logo, as well as blue and white stripinng around the V-neck. The red shorts are adorned with the Sixers secondary logo above a blue accent on the side of the left leg.

Present Home Uniform

1999 – 2006: Philadelphia added a new second road uniform during the 1999-00 season. The blue jersey sports a stylish new cut that's full of tradition from the great Sixers teams of the 1960's and 1970's. Trimmed in red and black, the jersey featured the "SIXERS" wordmark on the front with white numbers trimmed in red.

1997 – 2007: Prior to the 1997-98 season, the Sixers unveiled a completely new look including the first major logo change since becoming the Philadelphia 76ers in August of 1963. In keeping with the traditional red and blue, the logo was "modernized" by adding silver, gold and black. For the first time in franchise history, the Sixers wore black uniforms on the road. Trimmed in red and gold, the jersey that features the word "SIXERS" on the front with white numbers trimmed in red on the back. At home, a white jersey features black numbers trimmed in red.

PHILADELPHIA 76ERS UNIFORM HISTORY

1977-78

1976-77

1971-76

1966-70

1965-66

1994 – 97: This uniform was actually a throwback to the classic Sixers look. Designed by Lucy Loeb, the front featured "SIXERS" in a more ornate block lettering. This garb was white with red and blue trim at home and red with white and blue trim on the road.

1991 – 94: The Sixers uniform was redesigned by Champion Products and was a departure from the classic Sixers uniform. The design featured multicolored stars against a royal blue field that curved up from shorts to the jersey. The background of the away uniform remained red.

1978 – 91: The NBA begins to regulate uniform changes more closely. A rule is installed by the league requiring teams to use an exclusive outfitter and alert the NBA one year in advance of a design change. This uniform becomes the Sixers' hallmark, with the numeral surrounded by stars on the shorts. The road color returned to red. The uniforms were manufactured first by Wilson, then by Sand Knit. The 76ers played more games in this uniform (1,066) than any other in the history of the franchise.

1977 – 78: The lettering on the jersey was readjusted, with home uniforms lettered in blue and outlined in white and red, while away uniforms were royal blue with white lettering in red trim.

1976-77: Another one-shot uniform surfaced, this time with a theme. In honor of the Bicentennial, the team turned to the cursive lettering and trim numerals of the 1970-71 season. The new uniforms were designed by Pat Williams, Al Domenico, Billy Cunningham and Sonder Levitt Advertising.

1971-76: SonderLevitt Advertising designed a uniform that had a much longer lifespan than its predecessor. With the new art deco-like lettering, the uniforms retained the star-inset blue side stripe, a graphic element that remained a feature through the 70's. Away uniforms were royal blue with white side stripes and stars.

1970-71: With its red-in-blue and cursive lettering, the Sixers next official home uniform (the old red garb was retained for away games), did not please Sixers suppliers. Midseason trades meant impossible turnaround times for these custom-sewn, flowing script uniforms. In the middle of the season a switch is made and "Seventy Sixers", in script, replaces "PHILA" on the front of the uniform.

1966-70: The Sixers went to the straightforward look during their first championship run. Simple block letters with the traditional "PHILA" on the front replaced the star-spangled banner look. Road uniforms became red with blue lettering and white trim.

1965-66: A two-tone uniform with a high waistband and long, baggy trunks was introduced. The players considered it flashy and uncomfortable to play in and it was abandoned after one season.

1963-65: The Sixers opened their run in Philadelphia with a Betsy Ross-inspired uniform (below). Adorned with a circle of stars on both the shorts and the back of the jersey surrounding the player's number, the stars quickly became a hallmark of the Sixers uniforms. The road uniform was dark blue with red lettering and numbers. Midway through the '64-65 season the style of the letters and numbers was changed.

 Early draft records are incomplete, so until 1956 players are listed alphabetically.*

Beginning in 1957, the draft is recorded round-by-round. To enable teams to take advantage of the regional popularity of college stars, they were given the option of forfeiting their first-round pick and instead selecting, before the start of the draft, a player from the franchise's immediate georgraphical area. These "territorial picks," as they were know, are not factored in to the overall selection count of the draft. The territorial option was in effect through 1965.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

Please note the following:

* Denotes that a player played for more than one team during that particular season and the team-by-team breakdown was not available. Each respective stat line is reflective of the entire season's statistics, which also affects the player's total stat lines.

(n) Denotes years played in the NBL with Syracuse, before the Nationals joined the NBA in 1949-50. NBL statistics are factored in to individual NBA totals, but do not affect team statistics/records.
